PLAN ADMINISTRATOR’S OBJECTION TO CLAIM NO. 246 FILED BY LEXON INSURANCE COMPANY, IRONSHORE SPECIALTY INSURANCE COMPANY AND IRONSHORE INDEMNITY, INC., OR IN THE ALTERNATIVE, MOTION TO ESTIMATE UNLIQUIDATED CLAIM

This is an objection to your claim. The objection asks the Court to disallow the claim that you filed in this bankruptcy case. If you do not file a response within 30 days after the objection was served on you, your claim may be disallowed without a hearing.

A hearing will be conducted on this matter on October 2, 2023, at 10:30 am (Central Time) in Courtroom 404, United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Texas, 515 Rusk Street, Houston, Texas 77002. You may participate in the hearing either in person or by audio/video connection.

Audio communication will be by use of the Court’s dial-in facility. You may access the facility at 1-832-917-1510. Once connected, you will be asked to enter the conference room number. Judge Isgur’s conference room number is 954554. Video communication will be by use of the GoToMeeting platform. Connect via the free GoToMeeting application or click the link on Judge Isgur’s home page. The meeting code is “JudgeIsgur”. Click the settings icon in the upper right corner and enter your name under the personal information setting.

¹ The Post-Effective Date Debtors, along with the last four digits of each Post-Effective Date Debtor’s federal tax identification number, as applicable, are: Fieldwood Energy III LLC (6778); Fieldwood Energy Offshore LLC (4494); Fieldwood Energy, Inc. (4991, GOM Shelf LLC (8107), and FW GOM Pipeline, Inc. (8440). Fieldwood Energy III LLC, Fieldwood Energy Offshore, LLC, and Fieldwood Energy Inc. are managed and operated by the Plan Administrator, whose primary mailing address is 16255 Ventura Blvd., Suite 440, Encino, CA, 91436, C/O Province LLC. GOM Shelf LLC and FW GOM Pipeline, Inc. (collectively, the “Post-Effective Date FWE I Subsidiaries”) are managed and operated by Jon Graham, as sole manager of each Post-Effective Date FWE I Subsidiary. The Debtors in the other nine pending chapter 11 cases (which continue to be jointly administered with the cases of the Post-Effective Date Debtors), each of which have either been dissolved or merged into other entities as of the Effective Date, consist of the following: Dynamic Offshore Resources NS, LLC (0158); Fieldwood Offshore LLC (3489); Fieldwood SD Offshore LLC (8786); Fieldwood Offshore LLC (2930); Bandon Oil and Gas GP, LLC (9172); Bandon Oil and Gas, LP (9266); Fieldwood Energy SP LLC (1971); Galveston Bay Pipeline LLC (5703; and Galveston Bay Processing LLC (0422).

Hearing appearances must be made electronically in advance of both electronic and in-person hearings. To make your appearance, click the “Electronic Appearance” link on Judge Isgur’s home page. Select the case name, complete the required fields and click “Submit” to complete your appearance.

If you object to the relief requested you must respond in writing. Unless otherwise directed by the Court, you must file your response electronically at <https://ecf.txsb.uscourts.gov/> within thirty (30) days from the date this objection was filed. Otherwise, the Court may treat the Objection as unopposed and sustain the relief requested.

Represented parties should act through their attorney.

TO THE HONORABLE MARVIN ISGUR, U.S. BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

David Dunn (“Administrator”), as Plan Administrator of Fieldwood Energy III LLC, Fieldwood Energy Offshore LLC, Fieldwood Energy Inc., GOM Shelf LLC and FW GOM Pipeline, Inc., Debtors (the “Post-Effective Date Debtors”) files this Plan Administrator’s Objection to Claim No. 246 Filed by Lexon Insurance Company, Ironshore Specialty Insurance Company and Ironshore Indemnity, Inc. (“Objection”), or, in the Alternative, Motion to Estimate Unliquidated Claim and in support thereof respectfully represents as follows:

RELIEF REQUESTED

1. The Administrator seeks entry of an order substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A (the “Proposed Order”) disallowing Proof of Claim No. 246 (the “Subject Claim”) pursuant to Sections 502(b) and 502(e)(1)(B) of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”) on the grounds that the Subject Claim is not enforceable against Debtors. The Administrator objects to the Subject Claim on the grounds that the Subject Claim includes numerous vague and unsubstantiated statements that do not establish how one or more of the Debtors are liable to the Claimant. In addition, the Administrator objects to the Subject Claim under Section 502(e)(1)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code because it is a contingent claim for reimbursement or contribution and is asserted by an entity that is liable with one or more Debtors on an underlying claim., and the Procedures for Complex Chapter 11 Cases in the Southern District of Texas (the “Complex Case Procedures”) in its entirety because the Subject Claim is unenforceable against the Post-Effective Date Debtors.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. This Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1334. This is a core proceeding under 28 U.S.C. § 157. The Administrator confirms his consent, pursuant to Rule 7008 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”), to the entry of a final order by the Court in connection with this Objection to the extent that it is later determined that the Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments in connection herewith consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution. Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

3. The statutory bases for the relief requested herein are Sections 105(a), 502(a), 502(b), 502(c), and 502(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules 3001 and 3007, Rules 3007-1 and 9013-1 of the Bankruptcy Local Rules for the Southern District of Texas (the “Bankruptcy Local Rules”), and the Complex Case Procedures.

BACKGROUND

A. The Chapter 11 Case

4. On August 3, 2020 and August 4, 2020 (as applicable, the “Petition Date”), the Debtors filed voluntary petitions for relief under chapter 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Case”) in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Texas (the “Court”).

5. On June 25, 2021, the Court entered the Findings of Facts, Conclusions of Law, and Order (I) Confirming Eighth Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Fieldwood Energy LLC and Its Affiliated Debtors and (II) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 1751] (the “Confirmation Order”) confirming, as modified therein, the Eighth Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Fieldwood Energy LLC and Its Affiliated Debtors [Docket No. 1742] (including any exhibits and schedules thereto and as may be further amended, supplemented, or modified, including at Docket No. 2008, the “Confirmed Plan”).

6. On August 27, 2021, the Debtors filed that certain Notice of (I) Entry of Order Confirming Join Chapter 11 Plan of Fieldwood Energy LLC and Its Affiliated Debtors and (II) Occurrence of Effective Date [Docket No. 2016], setting forth that, inter alia, the Effective Date occurred on August 27, 2021 (the “Effective Date”).

B. Plan Administrator

7. On the Effective Date, David Dunn of Province, Inc. was appointed to serve as the Plan Administrator pursuant to the Confirmed Plan. See Confirmed Plan § 5.9(b).

8. The Plan Administrator is responsible, to the extent not otherwise provided for in the Confirmed Plan, for carrying out and implementing all provisions of the Confirmed Plan on behalf of the Debtors and Post-Effective Date Debtors, including reviewing and reconciling all Claims asserted against the Debtors (including, but not limited to, Administrative Expense Claims, Other Secured Claims, Class 6A Unsecured Trade Claims, and Class 6B General Unsecured Claims) and making distributions on account of Allowed Claims. As more fully set forth therein, section 5.9(c) of the Confirmed Plan vests the Plan Administrator with “all the rights, powers, authority, and duties on behalf of each of the Debtors and [the] Post-Effective Date Debtors [other than the Post-Effective Date FEW I Subsidiaries pursuant to section 5.9(a) of the Confirmed Plan]...to carry out and implement all provisions of the [Confirmed] Plan.” In short, the Plan

Administrator has been tasked with: (i) controlling and effectuating the Claims reconciliation process; (ii) settling or compromising any Disputed Claims (as defined in the Confirmed Plan); and (iii) administering and adjusting the Debtors' claims register to reflect any such settlements and compromises.

C. Bar Dates

9. On October 13, 2020, the Debtors filed their Statements of Financial Affairs and Schedules of Assets and Liabilities [Docket Nos. 430 – 454].

10. On October 14, 2020, the Court entered the Order (I) Establishing Deadline to File Proofs of Claim and (II) Approving Form and Manner of Notice Thereof [Docket No. 466] (the “Bar Date Order”), establishing certain dates and deadlines (each a “Bar Date”) for filing proofs of claims in these chapter 11 cases. The Bar Date Order established: (a) November 25, 2020, as the Bar Date for all non-governmental entities to file Proofs of Claim, and (b) February 1, 2021, as the Bar Date for all governmental entities to file Proofs of Claim.

11. Section 7.5 of the Confirmed Plan provides, “[a]ny objections to a Claim shall be filed on or before the date that is the later of (a) 180 days after the Effective Date and (b) such later date as may be fixed by the Bankruptcy Court after notice and a hearing, upon a motion by the Post-Effective Date Debtors, as such deadline may be extended from time to time.” Confirmed Plan § 7.5. Accordingly, the deadline to object to Claims (the “Claims Objection Deadline”) was originally February 23, 2022, which was extended to August 22, 2022 by the Court’s order [Docket No. 2410] entered on March 16, 2022. The Claims Objection Deadline was further extended to February 18, 2023 by the Court’s order [Docket No. 2649] entered September 1, 2022. Finally, the Claims Objection Deadline was further extended to August 17, 2023 by the Court’s order [Docket No. 2770] entered March 16, 2023.

D. Lexon Insurance Company, Ironshore Specialty Insurance Company and Ironshore Indemnity, Inc.

12. On October 19, 2020, Lexon Insurance Company, Ironshore Specialty Insurance Company and Ironshore Indemnity, Inc. (collectively “Claimants”) filed Proof of Claim No. 246. The Subject Claim asserts an unsecured claim in the amount of $90,327,000.00. Claimants are sureties that issued various surety bonds with respect to obligations with the Debtors. The attachments to the Subject Claim contend that the Debtors “are either primarily liable as Principal, or Indemnitor, or both under the Bonds to Claimant.”

13. Attached hereto as Exhibit B is the Declaration of David Dunn in Support of the Objection to Proof of Claim No. 246 filed by Lexon Insurance Company, Ironshore Specialty Insurance Company and Ironshore Indemnity, Inc., or, in the Alternative, Motion to Estimate Unliquidated Claim (the “Declaration”).

ARGUMENT AND AUTHORITY

14. Section 502(a) of the Bankruptcy Code provides, in pertinent part, as follows: “[a] claim or interest, proof of which is filed under § 501 of [the Bankruptcy Code], is deemed allowed, unless a party in interest . . . objects.” 11 U.S.C. § 502(a). As set forth in Bankruptcy Rule 3001(f), a properly executed and filed proof of claim constitutes prima facie evidence of the validity and the amount of the claim under Section 502(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. See, e.g., In re Tran, 351 B.R. 440, 444 (Bankr. S.D. Tex. 2006), aff’d, 369 B.R. 312 (S.D. Tex. 2007) (holding that a properly filed proof of claim is prima facie evidence of the validity and amount of the claim). A proof of claim loses the presumption of prima facie validity under Bankruptcy Rule 3001(f) if an objecting party refutes at least one of the allegations that are essential to the claim’s legal sufficiency. See In re Fidelity Holding Co., Ltd., 837 F.2d 696, 698 (5th Cir. 1988) (holding “If, however, evidence rebutting the claim is brought forth, then the claimant must produce additional evidence to 'prove the validity of the claim by a preponderance of the evidence.'"). Once such an allegation is refuted, the burden reverts to the claimant to prove the validity of its claim by a preponderance of the evidence. See id. Despite this shifting burden during the claim objection process, "the ultimate burden of proof always lies with the claimant." Id.

11 U.S.C. § 502(b)(1)

15. 11 U.S.C. § 502(b)(1) provides that:

if such objection to a claim is made, the court, after notice and a hearing, shall determine the amount of such claim in lawful currency of the United States as of the date of the filing of the petition, and shall allow such claim in such amount, except to the extent that—

(1) such claim is unenforceable against the debtor and other property of the debtor, under any agreement or applicable law for a reason other than because such claim is contingent or unmatured.

11 U.S.C. § 502(b)(1).

16. Administrator objects to the Subject Claim under § 502(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code on the basis that the Subject Claim is unenforceable against the Debtors and the property of the Debtors. The documents attached to the Subject Claim do not support how Debtor is liable or potentially liable to Claimant. For example, the Statement of Claim states that "Claimant continues its investigation of its Bond exposure. Due to the nature of the debt, the potential for continued claims made on the Bonds and/or the Indemnity Agreement, the various stages of the projects/facilities covered by the Bonds and/or the Indemnity Agreement, and payment of premiums and loss adjustment expenses, Claimant is unable to determine the exact amount or classification of its claim." Claimants have not asserted a valid claim under Rule 3001(a) because there is no information or documentation to identify what obligations, if any, the Debtors may be liable for.

17. Claimants appear to have calculated its “Approximately $90,327,000.00” asserted unsecured claim amount by aggregating the asserted penal sums of the Bonds on which the Subject Claim is based, but Claimants also state that “[i]n the event a Bond is not listed on the attached summary, Claimant reserves its right to amend this Claim to assert a claim for such Bond.” The Subject Claim also does not appear to assert or explain why Debtors owe the penal sum of all of the Bonds. Thus, even if it were enforceable against the Debtors, the Subject Claim does not provide sufficient evidence to determine the amount of any claim.

11 U.S.C. § 502(e)(1)(B)

18. Section 502(e)(1)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code provides, in pertinent part, that:

[T]he court shall disallow any claim for reimbursement or contribution of an entity that is liable with the debtor on or has secured the claim of a creditor, to the extent that...such claim for reimbursement or contribution is contingent as of the time of allowance or disallowance of such claim for reimbursement or contribution[.]

11 U.S.C. § 502(e)(1)(B).

19. Contingent claims must be disallowed if they meet the following factors: (i) the claim is for reimbursement or contribution, (ii) the claim is asserted by an entity that is liable with the debtor on an underlying claim, and (iii) the claim is contingent at the time of its allowance or disallowance. See In re Sorenson v. Drexel Burnham Lambert Group, Inc., (In re Drexel Burnham Lambert Group, Inc.), 146 B.R. 92, 95-96 (S.D.N.Y. 1992)(articulating three-part test); In re Tri-Union Dev. Corp., 314 B.R. 611, 616-17 (Bankr. S.D. Tex. 2004)(analyzing whether reimbursement claim was contingent, then assessing whether “the responding parties are ‘liable with the debtor’”).

20. The Subject Claim alleges that the “Indemnity Agreement and/or common law, expressly requires the Debtors, and all Indemnitors, to indemnify and hold Claimant harmless from any losses, costs or expenses incurred as a result of issuing the respective bonds.” If Claimants were able to establish that the Debtors had reimbursement obligations pursuant to certain agreements, then any claim they may have in the future against the Debtors, as identified in the Subject Claim, would be for reimbursement or contribution. “Courts have consistently held that ‘the concept of reimbursement includes indemnity.’” In re Falcon V, L.L.C., 620 B.R. 256, 269-70 (Bankr. M.D. La. 2020); In re RNI Wind Down Corp., 369 B.R. 174, 181-82 (Bankr. D. Del. 2007)(quoting In re Vectrix Bus. Solutions, Inc., 2005 WL 3244199, at *3 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 2005)). “Traditionally, when a surety is compelled to pay debts for its principal, the surety is deemed entitled to reimbursement even without a contractual promise.” In re Tri-Union Dev. Corp., 314 B.R. at 619.

21. Second, the claim must be asserted by an entity that is liable with the debtor on an underlying claim. In order for Section 502(e) to apply, “[t]here must exist...a shared liability to the same party on the same claim.” In re Tri-Union Dev. Corp., 314 B.R. 611, 616-17 (Bankr. S.D. Tex. 2004). “[T]he co-liability requirement is to be interpreted to require a finding that the causes of action in the underlying lawsuit assert claims upon which, if proven, the debtor could be liable but for the automatic stay.” In re Drexel Burnham Lambert Group, Inc., 146 B.R. 92, 95 (S.D.N.Y. 1992). “Finally, the debtor’s co-liability with the claimant is implicit in an indemnity arrangement...where the arrangement between a debtor and a claimant is one of a surety who has issued bonds for which the obligor (debtor) has agreed to indemnify it.” In re Alta Mesa Resources, Inc., et al., 2022 Bankr. LEXIS 3649, *11 (Bankr. S.D. Tex. December 28, 2022). The existence of a direct claim by the third party against the debtor does not preclude the application of Section 502(e)(1)(B). In re Tri-Union Dev. Corp., 314 B.R. at 616-17. If Debtors have any liability with respect to the purported bonds or indemnity agreements, then the Claimants would be co-liable with Debtors. Accordingly, the Subject Claim satisfies the second element of the three-part test.

22. Third, the Subject Claim remains contingent, despite Claimants' statement to the contrary. In the Tri-Union Dev. Corp. case, the Court noted that "contingent" in under Section 502(e) this context means "unfunded" and that claims remain "contingent" for purposes of Bankruptcy Code § 502(e)(1)(B) until the co-debtor has paid the creditor. In re Tri-Union Dev. Corp., 314 B.R. at 616-17. The Subject Claim requires the occurrence of an event before Debtors are liable for any such obligation, such as a payment on account of a bond, which Claimants have not shown to have occurred. The Claimants have not presented any evidence or documentation that the Subject Claim has matured or is likely to mature into a non-contingent or liquidated claim, instead listing the summary of the Subject Claim as follows:

Total Amount of Bonds Executed on behalf of Debtors:	$90,327,000.00
Paid Claim:*	Unknown
Loss Adjustment Expenses (approx.):*	Unknown
Unpaid Premiums:*	Unknown
Total:	$90,327,000.00

*The asterisked items continue to accrue. An amended Proof of Claim will be filed to reflect final payments, loss adjustment expenses and premiums when they are ultimately determined.

23. Therefore, the Subject Claim is contingent because the Subject Claim is based upon a yet to occur future event. See Tri-Union, 314 B.R. at 616. ("[C]laims remain 'contingent' for purposes of Bankruptcy Code § 502(e)(1)(B) until the co-debtor has paid the creditor."). The Subject Claim must therefore be disallowed.

24. Additionally, the Asset Purchase Agreement entered into in connection with the sales of Debtors’ assets all contain provisions stating “[a]s of the Closing or promptly thereafter (and in any case within ten (10) Business Days of Closing), Buyer and/or Buyer 2, as applicable, will have lease bonds, area-wide bonds and surety bonds or insurance policies to the extent required by and in accordance with the requirements of such Governmental Authorities as determined by Buyer in its sole discretion.” Docket No. 2013 at p. 128. To the extent the buyers have obtained replacements for any bonds on which the Subject Claim is based, Claimants’ claim under such bonds will not mature.

Bankruptcy Rule 3001

25. Bankruptcy Rule 3001(a) requires a proof of claim be a written statement setting forth the creditor’s claim and shall conform substantially to the appropriate Official Form. The Subject Claim fails to meet the requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 3001(a) because it fails to set forth the creditor’s claim.

11 U.S.C. § 502(c)(1) – Motion to Estimate Unliquidated Claim

26. Section 502(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that there “shall be estimated for purpose of allowance under this section—(1) any contingent or unliquidated claim, the fixing or liquidation of which, as the case may be, would unduly delay the administration of the case.” 11 U.S.C. § 502(c)(1).

27. Section 502(c) of the Bankruptcy Code empowers the Court to estimate claims and requires such estimation where the fixing or liquidation of such claim “would unduly delay the administration of the case.” 11 U.S.C. § 502(c)(1); In re Cantu, 2009 WL 1374261, at *1 (Bankr. S.D. Tex. May 15, 2009) see also In re Frontier Airlines, Inc., 137 B.R. 811, 814 (D. Colo. 1992) (“Estimation is not discretionary with the bankruptcy court.”); International Bhd. of Teamsters v. IML Freight, Inc., 789 F.2d 1460, 1463 (10th Cir. 1986) (“[s]ection 502(c) requires that such unliquidated claims must be estimated for allowance if liquidation of the claim would unduly delay the closing of the case”). The principal consideration when estimating the value of a claim is “to promote a fair distribution to creditors through a realistic assessment of uncertain claims.” O’Neill v. Cont’l Airlines, Inc. (In re Cont’l Airlines), 981 F.2d 1450, 1461 (5th Cir. 1993). The Court has discretion to determine the manner in which estimation will be employed and should use whatever method is best suited to the circumstances. In re Continental Airlines, Inc., 57 B.R. 842, 845 (Bankr. S.D. Tex. 1985); In re Perry, 425 B.R. 323, 342 (Bank. S.D. Tex. 2010); In re Cantu, 2009 WL 1374261, at *2; Bittner v. Borne Chem. Co., 691 F.2d 134, 135 (3d Cir. 1982). In addition, courts have construed the phrase “for purpose of allowance,” as used in section 502(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, to “encompass both the allowance and disallowance (through valuation at zero) of contingent or unliquidated claims. In re Frontier, 137 B.R. at 814; see also Bittner, 691 F.2d at 135 (affirming bankruptcy court’s estimation of claims at $0.00); Ryan v. Loui (In re Corey), 892 F.2d 829, 834 (9th Cir. 1989) (affirming estimation of claims at $0.00); JP Morgan Chase Bank v. U.S. Nat’l Bank Ass’n (In re Oakwood Homes Corp.), 329 B.R. 19, 22 (D. Del. 2005) (same); In re Girard Med. Ctr., 128 B.R. 938, 947 (Bankr. E.D. Pa. 1991) (same).

28. To the extent that the Subject Claim is enforceable against the Debtors, the Administrator seeks entry of an order, pursuant to Section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code, estimating the amount of the Subject Claim. The Administrator requests that the Court estimate the Subject Claim in the amount of zero dollars ($0.00). The Administrator further requests that zero dollars ($0.00) be the maximum amount to which Claimants are permitted, should the Subject Claim ultimately become an allowed claim.

RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

29. This Objection is limited to the grounds stated herein. Accordingly, it is without prejudice to the rights of the Administrator to object to any claim on any ground whatsoever. The Administrator expressly reserves all further substantive or procedural objections. Nothing contained herein or any actions taken pursuant to such relief is intended or should be construed as: (a) an admission as to the validity of any prepetition claim against the Debtors; (b) a waiver of the Administrator's rights to dispute any prepetition claim on any grounds; (c) a promise or requirement to pay any prepetition claim; (d) an implication or admission that any particular claim is of a type specified or defined in this Objection or any order granting the relief requested by this Objection; (e) a request or authorization to assume any prepetition agreement, contract, or lease pursuant to Section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code; or (f) a waiver of the Administrator's rights under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable law.

NOTICE

WHEREFORE, the Administrator respectfully requests that the Court enter the Proposed Order granting the relief requested herein and such other relief as the Court deems appropriate under the circumstances.
